

News Release: June 4, 2009
For Release: Immediately
Contact: Becky Spika
Racine Public Library
262.619.2571
Fax 262.636.99260
Email becky.spika@racinelibrary.info

WHO DUNNIT? RACINE HISTORY MYSTERIES CAMP FOR KIDS

Racine –The Racine Public Library, Racine Heritage Museum and RAM’s Wustum Museum are once again hosting Racine’s History Mystery Creative Writing, History and Art Camp, a unique summer camp opportunity for youth ages 9-13. From July 20-24, young writers will be inspired by local artifacts and lore, learning the myths that surround them and the clues that will tell the real story. Camp “detectives” will investigate murders, mysteries, crime scenes and the art of forensics through their writing. Each participant will create a written and illustrated short story that details it all and solves the final question...Who Dunnit?!

Working with archivists, librarians, artists, and museum/library staff adventurers will explore the Racine Heritage Museum, the Racine Public Library, and RAM’s Wustum Museum. Each day will include exploration of the book writing and making process, games, fun activities, and other great adventures.

Campers will be spending each day from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. at a different venue with the following schedule:

Monday, July 20 - Racine Public Library (and tour of an undisclosed location!)
Tuesday, July 21 - Racine Heritage Museum
Wednesday, July 22 - Racine Public Library
Thursday, July 23 - RAM’s Wustum Museum
Friday, July 24 - RAM’s Wustum Museum - Special “Author’s Corner” at 4:00 pm

Registration and a camp fee of $95 are required. Register before July 1 and receive $5 off the registration fee. Win a free scholarship to attend Racine History Mysteries III: Who Dunnit? by writing a brief paragraph about why you want to attend the mystery camp. Send entries to:

Racine History Mystery Camp
RAM’s Wustum Museum
2519 Northwestern Avenue, Racine, WI 53404-2299

For more information or to register, call Wustum Museum at 262.636.9177 or visit www.ramart.org.

###