Racine History Mysteries III: Who Dunit?

July 20 – 24, 2009

Monday – Friday, 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Ages 9–13

Was it Miss Scarlett in the ballroom with the candlestick? Or could it be Professor Plum with the rope in the library? What kind of CLUES can you uncover about Racine's Histories...and Racine's Mysteries? During this week-long camp, discover how real detectives expose the truth behind the mysteries! Be inspired by local artifacts and lore, learn the myths that surround them and find the clues that will tell the real story. What kind of evidence can you detect? What proof do you need? Write a short story that will reveal hidden stories lurking about in Racine's History, using lots of fact, and even more fiction. Camp "detectives" will investigate murders, mysteries, crime scenes and the art of forensics through their writing. Each camper will create a book that solves the final question...Who Dunit?! Bring a lunch each day. $95 registration fee.

Join the Racine Heritage Museum, the Racine Public Library and RAM's Wustum Museum for this mysterious week of creative writing, history and art!
