RACINE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Racine Public Library has secured funding for a second tech/bookmobile, thanks to the generous support of the Racine Public Library Foundation. This second vehicle will support the Racine community by providing school programs, attending outreach events and by expanding the current bookmobile schedule.

Now we need your help!
If you, your business or your organization would like to help sponsor filling the new tech/bookmobile please email Racine Public Library's Executive Director.
Click here for sponsorship tiers.

Every little bit helps!
Filling the new tech/bookmobile will be a community effort. For every personal $25 donation, a plate will be placed inside of a book commemorating your donation. Upon the installation of the new collection, you will be notified as to which books your donation has sponsored.

Donate here Today
Please indicate the tech/bookmobile

Please mail checks to:
Racine Public Library Foundation

Potawatomi Traditions

presented by Skip Twardosz

Skip Twardosz is of Potawatomi descent, is a singer and traditional dancer, and an amateur historian of native woodland culture. He has functioned as Storyteller, Fire Keeper, and Elder for many Native gatherings in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Indiana. Skip will speak about how the Native people treat the natural world, their traditions, and their ways of respecting plants, animals and Mother Earth, as taught by Elders.

THE SHIPWRECK OF THE LADY ELGIN

The Lady Elgin was a sidewheel steamship carrying 300 passengers. It was returning from Milwaukee to Chicago when it was struck by a schooner, and sunk in Lake Michigan on September 8, 1860.

Author Paul Timm will share his research and book inspired by the American disaster.
