"Hygge" Danish Coziness and Comfort

At 11 a.m. during Winter Fest, Professor Claus Andersen from the University of Wisconsin will give a Badger Talk on the Danish quality of "hygge," a traditional sense of coziness, conviviality, wellness and contentment. Professor Andersen has been teaching

Scandinavian studies for more than 15 years, immersing himself in its culture, history and literature.

Captain Mike's Galley Kitchen food truck will be parked in the circle of Library Drive during Winterfest. Chef Danielle has put together a speciality Winterfest menu sure to bring out a sense of warmth and coziness.

Check out the menu here!

Ay Chihuahua sources its coffee from a woman-owned farm in the Chiapas state, Mexico. It's a medium-light roast that has a smooth flavor, with chocolate notes and low acidity. The coffee cart offers signature coffee drinks and traditional drip coffee.

CELEBRATING 25 YEARS

BRIDGE & WOLAK

Classically trained musicians Michael Bridge and Kornel Wolak form this acclaimed music and comedic duo, integrating traditionally acoustic music from the piano, accordion, and clarinet with digital technology. Performing a unique fusion of classical, world, and jazz repertoire with virtuosity and wit, Bridge and Wolak have been called the "Victor Borges of the 21st century."

FRIDAY, FEB. 25 | 10 A.M. | RACINE PUBLIC LIBRARY

75 7TH STREET, RACINE, WI 53403

Seating is limited, and masks covering nose & mouth are required.

This outreach was made possible in support of the Racine Community Foundation grant.

IT'S MAPLE SUGARIN' TIME!

At Hawthorn Hollow Nature Sanctuary and Arboretum

"Have you ever wondered how maple syrup is made? Learn the traditional techniques and stories behind the process of maple sugaring, how to identify maple trees without leaves, and discover how humans have turned sap to syrup over time. Then, discover local opportunities to tap sugar bushes and create syrup yourself!"
