Honoring Our Vets and Active Duty

Veterans Day

"The fighting ceased between the Allied nations and Germany on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. For that reason, November 11, 1918, is generally regarded as the end of "the war to end all wars."

Racine Public Library respects, honors and remembers all those who serve and who have served. Take care of our Vets and active duty service members, peace to the world!

Veterans Crisis Line

It's Okay to Ask For Help

For information about state benefits and additional resources pertaining to self harm prevention, click here. Veterans in crisis should dial 988+1 for the Veteran Crisis Line.

The Racine Public Library's social worker also has connections to local resources. We can help anyone access services related to housing, legal help, employment, education, crisis supports, sexual assault, domestic violence, mental health, addiction, applying for benefits and anything else you might need. All of these services are available to the public for free.

Let's Get Writing!

NaNoWriMo:

NATIONAL NOVEL WRITING MONTH

NaNoWriMo is a fun, empowering approach to creative writing. The challenge: draft an entire novel (or other writing-based project) in just one month. For 30 wild, exciting, surprising days, you get to lock away your inner editor, let your imagination take over, and just create!

NOVEMBER 1-30
ALL AGES | REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Sign up at NaNoWriMo.org, then ask for Carrie at the youth services desk to track your progress with the Racine Public Library's other writers.

Writing Prompts

It's not too late to join in on the fun of NaNoWriMo, National Novel Writing Month. Whether you are regularly writing little quips and thoughts or full blown plays, the library encourages you to join. Get back into writing or start writing! We'll help you with a few writing prompts from Reddit's popular r/WritingPrompts forum.

The year is 1910. Adolf Hitler, a struggling artist, has fought off dozens of assassination attempts by well meaning time travelers, but this one is different. This traveller doesn't want to kill Hitler, he wants to teach him to paint. He pulls off his hood to reveal the frizzy afro of Bob Ross.

You lost your sight - along with everyone else on Earth - in The Great Blinding. Two years later, without warning, your sight returns. As you look around, you realize that every available wall, floor and surface has been painted with the same message - Don't Tell Them You Can See.

When you die, you appear in a cinema with a number of other people who look like you. You find out that they are your previous reincarnations, and soon you all begin watching your next life on the big screen.
