We're Open on Black Friday

BLACK FRIDAY

10 A.M. - 4 P.M. | NOV. 25

- $5 Bag of Books from Friends of the Library Book Sale
- Free Printing and Copies
- Fees on Lost Items Forgiven* (Must Come Into the Main Building)
- Special Deals on Library Merch

*Fee forgiveness only applies to items from the Racine Public Library, not to interlibrary loan items or items from other libraries in our collective.

$5 Bag o' Books (and More)

Although the Friends of the Racine Public Library didn't host their fall book sale this year due to construction, you'll still have a chance for deals! This Black Friday, for just $5, the library will provide you a bag that you can fill with gently used books, DVDs and anything else in the book sale nook. New titles will be hitting the shelves all day long, so check back in throughout your visit to see what you can find.

FREE...

Everyone's favorite four letter word! This Black Friday, the Racine Public Library will be offering free copies, free printing and free parking! Plus, be sure to browse hundreds of books, movies and other items — available to borrow for free all year round. 😊

Merch Deals and Discounts

The deals just keep coming! The entire week of Black Friday, Nov. 21 to Nov. 26, every in-person merch purchase of $50 or more will include a free library tote bag.

If you're shopping online, you can use the coupon code FREESHIPPING on Black Friday only to receive free shipping on all online store purchases.

Fine, You're Forgiven

Did the dog eat your borrowed copy of "The Notebook?" Has your kid kept "Frozen" hidden in their toy box for months and months? For one day only, the library will be forgiving all fees on lost items. To get your fees forgiven, stop into the library on Black Friday and talk to one of the librarians at our service stations, and they'll clear your account of any lost item charges.

Fine forgiveness only applies to materials owned by the Racine Public Library.

More Holiday Festivities at the Library
