

What's New at the Library

Thank you for all you have contributed to bring literacy and learning to the Racine community. Your support—whether through the taxes you pay, the programs you attend, the library resources you mention to your loved ones, or the items you check out—helps us build not just literacy, but also hope and community for everyone who visits us. We'd like to ask you to renew your support for the 140,000+ community members we serve each year by making a donation today.
