Interim Executive Director Report for May 2024 Board Packet

NICK DEMSKE, INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REPORT

There were a lot of great things that happened at the library during the month of April. We re-instituted our free bus pass service for the whole month again. We had 28 appointments for the Jessica MacPhail sound studio. Between our Solar Eclipse viewing party and our Local Author showcase, we had nearly 400 people attend just those two programs alone. We fixed the Lake Ave security gates and the upstairs automatic men's room door, replaced our staff room refrigerator after it broke, continued doing promotional appearances on the Don Rosen radio show and got a ton of attention for our seed library being fully restocked for spring. We had an all staff meeting with a training on Interlibrary loan procedure and a webinar on making boundaries at the library. We even ran out of hotspots that we've been giving away with free service for two years, through a strategic partnership with Racine County. All these things took place in the month of April, and they were just the tip of the iceberg.

The biggest news of the month, though, is that in April our beloved Business Manager, Evelin Garcia, submitted her two weeks notice to take a role at a competing municipality. We're thrilled for her, but devastated to lose her. The transition happens obviously while we have still not resolved the appointment for our director position, and while the deputy director role is also vacant. This means that the library is down both the second and third in charge in the building now.

There are a lot of decisions to be made at this junction with this new administrative vacancy. For me, it's an overwhelming and intimidating time, and a period where I'm struggling to not just do what feels easiest and quickest, but what would be right for the institution long term. As we gear up to have our annual all staff training day this Friday, I am having ongoing conversations with the leadership team, HR and the city finance department about what moving forward most responsibly looks like from here. It is definitely a moment where the path forward feels like it has less clarity than normal, though.

In the meantime, in April we also posted for a Public Service Assistant role(s), and Rebecca and Keiko have been leading that effort to replace the vacancies resulting from some recent promotions. Interviews should take place next week, and the community will continue to feel like this library hasn't skipped a beat. Because our team is that committed, that dedicated and that expert at creating positive experiences for patrons, even during times of challenging transition. The staff here are no strangers, at this point, to challenging transition, and I thank them for keeping the library a shining example of community service, even during those periods.

General: Anything that falls under this category are interactions I have with patrons that do not relate to social services, such as assisting patrons with printing, certain reference questions, etc during desk coverage or rounds. These interactions also get reported under the general library data gathering of interactions.*

Relating to Incident Report or Crisis: Anything that falls under this category are interactions I have with patrons that either directly result in an Incident Report, or in which I speak to a patron regarding their suspension, meet with a patron prior to the end of their suspension, or any other incident that occurs that may not result in an Incident report.*

Starting in 2024, I will begin to track the times in which library professionals, social workers, social work students, etc., reach out to me requesting my expertise on library social work related issues/questions.

Library Social Work Expertise Requested:

- Ashley Hammond- Boise Public Library; Ashley Hammond reached out to me to discuss safety and security concerns and how they relate to and affect the library social work role. On multiple occasions, I spent time reviewing a document she sent over that she plans to send to administration regarding her concerns.

Staff Continuing Education Activities and Positive Staff and Patron Stories

We had a reported total of 97 hours of CE from 16 staff members for June. This is because we had 14 staff members go through another Crisis Prevention Institute training which Evelin, Ashley and Glynis have been facilitating over the last year now for other staff members. Thanks to those three for helping get so many on staff trained in crisis prevention and deescalation techniques. It also includes a 40 hour code.org training which Melissa Donaldson did at Marquette University in July.
