

What's New at the Library

Join us for this series of bilingual events that aim to foster understanding, communication, and collaboration among our institutions and Hispanic community. These events take place at different venues in Racine, and are offered in English and Spanish. They are also free and no registration is required. Refreshments will be available at every event. Come to learn and stay for the fun. Anyone is welcome!

Special thanks to our organizers and partners from the Racine Public Library, League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), the Spanish Center of Racine, United Migrant Opportunity Services (UMOS), Mt. Pleasant and Racine COP Houses, City or Racine Fire Department, Mexican Consulate in Milwaukee, the Racine Heritage Museum, and all our community members who have helped along the way to make these event possible.
